

Twin Cities, Minnesota
August 5 - 12, 2001

2001 is the year to compete.

2001 is the year to be a spectator.

{ All fun shown here, is available for enjoyment at full-size this August }

2001 is the year to bring the family.

2001 is the year to play in Minnesota!

registration : email the PDGA at office@pdga.com - or call: 416-203-9628

non-registration questions : email Suzette Helmick at Discette@chartermi.net

tournament directors : Greg Rife and Lee Rife - 651-698-0295

sponsorship : email Rich Hart at 2001@dsquad.com - or call: 612-817-9657

www.2001ProWorlds.com

This is an official invitation to spend time with us in the Twin Cities this summer. This August, the PDGA Disc Golf Pro World Championships Tournament will be presented in Minnesota - a disc golf event like no other seen before. For the tournament player There will be great courses; four being in the top eight for difficulty of Worlds courses within the past five years • 3 courses 15 to 20 minutes from the host hotel • 2 courses 30 - 35 minutes • 4 courses are only 5 to 15 minutes from each other - and from Damon's, our midday Clubhouse. Also; great player packs • prizes • two Fly Marts • great sponsors • daily video coverage and scoring broadcast at Damon's • plus more. For family, friends, casual golfers, and spectators As well as putting on an incredible tournament for the participants in this year's event, there will be activities available during the week. 15 courses, less than an hour from the host hotel, will be available for public play throughout the week. The area offers an overwhelming choice of nearby activities; at the host hotel, three blocks away at the Mall of America, or within minutes in downtown Minneapolis or St. Paul - restaurants, theaters, museums, casinos, lakes, parks - you name it. Special events for everyone August 11th and 12th, players and spectators alike are going to experience a unique weekend of disc golf competition, public participation, education, and flying disc fun! At Como Park • Final Nine Championships, Saturday 2pm, the World's best players compete for 'number one' • Driving Range, open to the public, try new discs, get instruction and tips • Public Course, open to the public for practice play • Hole-In-One Contest, open to the public, a hole-in-one in the finals win's a new car! • Entertainment, demonstrations at noon, frisbee catching dogs, ultimate, guts, distance, and more • Fly Mart II, another chance for the disc golf vendors to show, tell, and sell • Vendors, great food and drinks will be available onsite both days • Skills Challenge Event, see specialty skill shots performed by the world's best players • Celebrity Event, local celebrities and sports figures team up with disc golf's best in an entertaining charity event.